William H. Anderson, head of the Anti-Saloon League of New York, left Albany last night, bag and baggage, which signifies that direct prohibition has received its final blow this session. A special session is not unlikely, should the April local option vote up-State prove decisive.

BOTH PLANS FOR VOTE IN STATE TO BE ADOPTED.

Both of the measures before the Senate which refer the prohibition question to the people will probably be passed to-day, as both parties are anxious now to go to the bat.

Unless some new move is made on the part of the Governor to forestall the majority leader, as in the case of the message sent to the Assembly, the matter will not be deferred, When Senator Wellington from Proy, n his dramatic fight for his motion to suspend the rules so there would be an open and clean cut vote on the prohibition amendment, stated that the Issue would stand or fall by the result, the Senators sudenly saw the light, saw the big issue must be faced and that they had to how here they stood.

Therefore the clase vote, prophesied in The Evening World, twenty - five to twenty - four against suspending the rules for the consideration of the Federal resolution. This leaves the reso lution high and dry as far as action at this session is concerned.

In accordance with the speech of the Republican leader, Elon Brown, the Emerson bill will be resurrected. This provides for a prohibition amendment to the State Constitution, with referendum to the people after the next Legislature has passed upon it.

It is believed that the referendum on the Federal amendment will also ig issue of prohibition in the Senate be passed in order to make the fall election safe for the Republicans, who do not wish to be charged with having balked the prohibitionists and prefer to stick to the plan of letting
